

HOW TO PARTY SAFELY? / REPORTED SPEECH PRACTICE

'Mama told me not to come'
Tom Jones ft Stereophonics

I. Work in a group and answer the following questions.

1. What is the greatest party you've ever been to? What makes it so special?

2. Describe the last party you went to.

3. What makes a good party? Decide on the three most important factors.

II. Work in a pair or a group of three. Listen to the song and put the lyrics in the correct order.

III. Report what the man/people said at the party using indirect speech. Pay attention to all the changes. Try to use variety of structures/reporting verbs.

Example: Somebody asked the man if he wanted whiskey in his water or sugar in his tea. The man wondered what all those crazy questions....

IV. Answer the questions.

What kind of problems did the man have at the party? Was it a good or bad party? Why?
